

The Gentle
Shepherd
COUNSELING CENTER

Marriage Counseling Consent

During the process of marriage counseling, there may be times when the counselor feels it would be beneficial to share information that one of you might tell him or her in an individual session.

With this understanding, I, _____ give my permission for my counselor to share information with myself or my spouse at his/her discretion.

Name

Date